

Profile

Troy Wilson is a retired 27 year veteran of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Troy Has lived in the Las Vegas community since 1970. Troy was a strong influence in the development of S.W.A.T. tactics and Sniper training with the LVMPD S.W.A.T. section since 1992. As a S.W.A.T. officer Troy has performed duties such as Junior and Senior Entry, Gas man, Manual breacher, Assistant Team Leader and Junior and Senior Sniper. In 2000 Troy became the Sniper team training coordinator and held that position until he retired.

In 2002 Troy attended the Basic, Advance and Instructor Sniper course with OpTac international. Later that year Troy went to work for OpTac as a consultant, and eventually was promoted to director of training. In 2004 Troy went with OpTac to Singapore where he assisted with training the Ghurkas, a military contingent set to guard Singapore from terrorist attacks. In 2010 Troy went with OpTac to Abu Dhabi, UAE where he assisted with training the F7 police force under Lexington Security Group. In 2014 Troy went with OpTac to Port of Spain, Trinidad where he assisted with training the M.O.P.S. unit, a tactical team assigned to protect Trinidad and Tobago against all unusual criminal activity. In 2015 Troy went with OpTac to Edmonton, Canada where he assisted with the RCMP tactical commanders course. Troy has also taught in over two dozen programs with OpTac in the United States.

Troy has always strived for excellence in physical conditioning for himself and his unit. As a competitive Powerlifter for over 10 years, Troy set a new American record in the Deadlift, lifting 705 pounds at a body weight of 195 pounds in the summer of 1997, in Venice Beach, California.

Equipment List:

Bolt or semi-auto rifle	tacks
Optics	tape
Binoculars or spotting scope	Lock pick set
Range finder
200 rounds of Department approved ammunition	Stalk material:
Cleaning kit	Boonie cap
Food for the day	Spider veils
Water for the day	Ghille suit or material.
Note pad
Pen/pencil

Hide site kit:

nondescript bag
Civilian clothes
550 cord
black out screen material
white sheets